J. OURISTMAS.

Christmas was more generally noticed set Sunday than at any previous anziverary, within this city.

At the Second Baptist Church, an appro-I riste and stirring discourse, was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Richards, of the Thames Street, Methodist Church, during the morning service. In the afternoon, services were obshed by an Anthers containing soli and fugue movements. We noticed a tenor sole, which required more power of voice perhaps, but was sung smoothly, and its high notes were touched clearly and finely. Zion's Church was elegantly and profusely dressed. Over the chancel were, "Meaven's eternal arches ring with thy Beloved Name." Within the same, was a large and beautiful evergreen cross, lettered ia gilt, " I H S." Bervices were hetd Batorday evening, and three times on Sunday. On the former occasion, the Rector, Rev. Mr. Brown preached from Issish LX. 1. The Restoration of the Jews was eloquently discussed in the clear and pleasing style characteristic of the speaker. The vocal voluntary, as well as the singing generally, reflected great credit upon the leader and choir. They sung in good time, and when they swerved very slightly from the pitch, as they did twice, it was clearly from exhaustion. It was evident that the rehearsals had been so conscientious that the singers were fatigued, a very rare failing we judge, from what we hear in the different churches. Mr. Stanley's fidelity to the interests of the church, as well as the persevering energy of his assistants, were apparent. The opening argan voluntary might be, perhaps, considered by some as too secular, but the accompaniments were beautiful, and were a rich honor to the Trinity was tastefully decorated. The Rev. A. G. Mercer preached and conducted service, assisted by Rev. Thomas L. Randolph, and Rev. William C. Leverett, the former reading morning prayers. Mr. Mercer's text was: "I saw and bare regord." Subject-1st, Style of the birth of Christ-2d, Character of Christ-3d, His power. "Mr. Tourjee's boys sung well, both on soli and in concert; Mr. T. played in his best style, and sung some sels very finely. There was also service in the afternoon, but no sermon.

The opening service at St. Mary's Church was at the early hour of 5 o'clock, at which time High Mass was sung, and a sermon given by Very Rev. Mr. O'Reilly. At 10 o'clock High Mass was sung, and a sermon given by Rev. Mr. Glennen. Vespers took place at 7 o'clock, when the Rev. Mr. Glennen again spoke. The choir sang a new mose, the same as that which was performed by the Musical Institute at their last concert. Mr. Paynne of New New York City, presided at the organ.

Emanuel Church was also profusely decorated, and interesting services were held by the Rev. Mr. Wingate.

We have no doubt that interesting and instructive exercises were held in churches, other than those alluded to above. But we sould not be abiquipper, and as the advisement, until the next morning.

Frank .- The slarm caused by the swo entall free sone on Bonnister's Wharf, the other on the Woolen Mill Wharf-in the midst of the gale last Baturday, aroused considerable feeling in our community. What a time for a fire!" was the general exclamation. Our city has repeatedly been aroused by the cry of fire, the sause of which was located upon the premises at tached to the above named factory. It has been a subject of remark upon the gates to the State Convention, as per call. street quite generally, since last Saturday, and the opinion is quite freely given, that something-what is not well known-ought to be done to remove those causes. The last cause of a larm was apontaneous comhustion is a large quantity of wool, and inless we are misimformed, it is not the first fire which has originated on the same premises from the same cause. It does not seem proper that so many buildings and perhaps lives should be risked if there is any method of preventing it. The propristors of the factory are public-spirited men, having done much for their fellow citizens, and when the facts come to their knowledge, we have no doubt that the proper means will be taken to prevent, in the future, such dangers.

Since the above was written, we have received the following communication: NEWFORT, Dec. 26, 1859.

Ms. EDITOR :- I observed by your paper of this morning's date, that the fire on Saturday evening last " was caused by the waste in the Woolen Mill, and it was extinguished by pitching the waste into the dock."

I wish to inform you that you were mistaken : the fire alluded to was the burning of some cotton which was heaped up and povered with sacks, about fifty feet from the mill, we having apread itfor drying the same day. There was none thrown into the dock—it was extinguished by the powerful new engine, No. 7, manned by a of the ablest young men of our city. I wish to give them great credit and thanks for their kindly assistance in saving the property. They were on the apot, and had a stream of water playing on the fire in ten minutes after it was discovered.

The Brig N. S. Ruggles was aunched yesterday forencon, about 10 o'clock, at the ship-yard of Measrs. Silns H. Cottrell & Co., South part of the harbor. The vessel glided down slowly, and beautifully into the waters, amid the cheers of those on board. The scene, notwithtanding the cold, was witnessed by about two hundred, who were highly pleased with the sight.

SHIP BUILDING.

Ms. Kniron:-Noticing in your paper storday that the new brig now being built at Messrs. S. M. Cotterell & Co's yard will be launched on Monday next at 9 o'clock, 1 am led to express my gratification that our com-munity have not abandoned the noble art of soo she is to be called after one of our late, most enterprising merchants, largely engaged in commerce Mr. N. S. Ruggles, who left the mantle of his commercial spirit with his only son, whose early death in a foreign land, we have never ceased to deplore, every one con ceding that had Mr. John Ruggles been spared to his friends and this city, his wealth and the talents he was so generally endowed with would have been devoted to the advancamen of commerce, our real strength. Again, this vessel is to be rotained in Now port, and I trust will often return from prosserous voyages; beautiful in model, strong in construction, may she bear well the noble stars and stripes, and be the means of greatly enriching her owners. I am also called to notice the beautiful craft nearly completed at the ship pard of the Messra. Crandall, and I am informed she can be finished at short notice, and is only waiting a purchaser. Have we not capitalists here who will squip her, and calling some other, and thus retain her likewise in our own bands, another star to the too small circle of names now comprising our list of yearels? do This is one way of improving the advantages we have as a Commercial Port. Merely as a COMMERCE.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis (Mo.) Democrat. Below we publish a fetter to Dr. Wood of this city, from a gentlemen in Maine, which specks glowingly of the superior merits of his halt tonic. Such criticage must have its effect, when comming from a reliable source. If certificates are gurvanices of trulk, the Dr. needs no encommon, nor useless paffer, from the press:

BATH, Maine, Jan. 29, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Woody to:

Gentlemen: Inving my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial offects of your hair restorative. It was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had tecome quite grey, prubably one-third white; my whiskers were of same character. Some three mouths since I produced a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about a week. I have since proured another bottle, of which I have need some. I can now certify to the world that the gray of white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resum d its natural color, and i believa, more suft and glossy than it has been before for Iworty-five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two has used it with the rame effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have uccasion to contradict my statements. I am actize not this city and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the notice, with my make of the notice, with my make of the state of this city and a resident of the second of the process of the last fifteen years, and am known to meanity every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the notice, with my make of the state of the second of the second of the contradiction of the second of Prof. O J. Wood's Co :

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.
Professor Wood-Dear Sir: Having had the mislorance to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1841. I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer to the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and an words can express my abligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasur.

BROOKTIELD, Jan. 12, 1898.

Professor Wood-Deer Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restonative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing indiamation, dand off and constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my lair which was been ing gray, in its original culor. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

The Beginning of the End.—Not long ago, a bridegroom returning home from his wolding was met by a friend, who thus addressed him:

"Well, Jack, I'm glad to see thee in thy happy position; thou'st seen the end of thy trouble now?"

"Thank thee, lad," was Jack's an-swer, "I hope I have."

About a month afterwards the two About a mount attenues as a friends met, when Jack, speaking rather warmly, exclaimed, "B.II, thou telled me a lie that morning I got wed? Didn't thou say I'd see the end of my trouble?" I did," said Bill; "but I didn't tell thee which end."
